

Crime Prevention Association of New Brunswick Inc.

March 2023

Volume 5, Number 3

In this Issue

- 2022 Crime Prevention Awards
- Support Love Shouldn't Hurt

What is CPANB?

The Crime Prevention Association of New Brunswick was incorporated as a non-profit organization in October 1994. CPANB includes members of all ages and sectors including teachers, health promoters, community leaders, social development practitioners, police officers, social workers, lawyers and correctional officers who advocate and promote social development and personal safety for all New Brunswickers.

CPANB is a member of New Brunswick's Roundtable on Crime and Public Safety which supports the Provincial Crime Prevention Strategy.

CPANB seeks to help mobilize communities, promote effective crime prevention strategies, encourage collaboration, support Crime Prevention through social development, and reduce crime opportunities through public awareness and education.

Contact Us

 cpanb-apcnb.com

 ipsprevention.jspprevention@gnb.ca

 /cpanb.apcnb

 @cpanb\_apcnb

2022 Crime Prevention Awards

Each year, the Crime Prevention Association of New Brunswick and the Department of Justice and Public Safety recognize individuals and groups that are making significant contributions to community safety and crime prevention by presenting Crime Prevention Awards and Certificates of Recognition. Please join us in celebrating the 2022 recipients.

Please join us in celebrating the 2022 recipients.

Community Program Officers have been a staple of the New Brunswick policing landscape for 15 years, carrying an ever-broadening mandate. We were pleased to recognize Lisa Williams, JF LeBlanc, Teena Solomon-Ouellette, Richard Babineau, Nicole Sock, Claudette Savoie, Judy Cyr, Patrice Ferron, Allison Palmer, Sonia Lavertu-Bernier, Thomas Leger, Hillary Daigle, Donald Daigle, Shelley Donahue, and Rene Savoie with Justice and Public Safety Certificates of Recognition for helping to keep our communities safe.

Fredericton Police Force Integrated Community Services (ICS) Team

The Fredericton ICS team aims to prevent and reduce crime by intervening when risk factors are present—before crime happens. Congratulations to Deputy Chief Kimberly Quartermain, Staff Sgt. Michael MacLean, Cpl. Ryan Kelly, Cst. Mike Bamford, Cst. Christine Bourgoin, Det./Cst. Brandon Gaynor, Shelley Gregan, Samantha Landry, Julie Meyer and Monique Harquail.

The Miramichi Youth Campus (MYC), formerly the New Brunswick Youth Centre, has been in operation for 25 years and is the only Youth Custody facility in the province. Led by Superintendent Adam Stickle and Deputy Superintendent Brad McFarlane, MYC and its leadership are recognized for their contributions to the advancement and modernization of Youth Justice Services in NB.

Responding to concerns raised by members of the community about waterway safety, a significant recreation and tourist activity in the Kent County region, Cpl. Ricky LeBlond played an important role in keeping people safe on the water. Cpl. LeBlond is recognized for his in-depth knowledge of, and efficient response to, his community's needs.

Cst. Erika Norris was recognized with a Crime Prevention Certificate of Recognition, offered by the Department of Justice and Public Safety for her work and dedication to reducing crime on Kent County roadways.

---

Cst. Leo 'Tyler' Francis Memorial Award

Understanding the importance of upstream crime prevention, Sgt. Maxime Babineau (right) aims to prioritize building positive relationships with youth and contributing to the well-being of community members. Sgt. Babineau is recognized as an Expert Witness on matters related to drug trafficking, an expertise that he has developed into a training to build capacity among policing colleagues in the province. Sgt. Babineau was nominated by Paul Lang and the Kent Regional Service Commission for his dedication and proven effectiveness at improving safety in the region.

Det./Cst. Brandon Gaynor (left) has served as the Fredericton Police Force's intimate partner violence coordinator since 2017, where he has contributed to improving intimate partner violence prevention, response and intervention in Fredericton across the province. Det./Cst. Gaynor's has built significant relationships with government, community, and policing agencies which have contributed to improving individual and collective responses to intimate partner violence. Det./Cst. Gaynor was nominated by the Crime Prevention and Program Development Branch for his professional dedication, his contributions to saving the lives of New Brunswickers, and his positive, approachable demeanor as he tackles this important work.

---

Business Excellence Award

Fusion is a youth basketball association in Fredericton and a contributor to youth sports and recreation in the region. Community sports organizations are an invaluable crime prevention resource, offering an effective and supportive environment to insulate youth from both participating in crime, and becoming a victim of crime. Fusion was nominated Stephanie Sanford in recognition of their vast and positive impact on the lives of so many youth in the Fredericton area.

Guy Ouellette has dedicated 40 years of his life to crime prevention in New Brunswick. Beginning his career as an RCMP officer in 1977, Guy has always had an interest in crime prevention, and carried this passion with him as he transitioned into his role with the Insurance Bureau of Canada (IBC) where he developed PATNET, a network to share trends, information and training on identifying stolen vehicles. Guy has also been a longstanding Board member of the Crime Prevention Association of New Brunswick. Guy was nominated by Marc Beaupre in recognition of his significant and long-lasting dedication to crime prevention.

---

Hall of Fame Award

Dr. Linda Neilson is an internationally recognized scholar in socio-legal studies. a substantial supporter of the Roundtable on Crime and Public Safety, and an incredible contributor to both the provincial and federal justice systems. Dr. Neilson's contributions to intimate partner violence research and policy in New Brunswick are far-reaching, span decades, and demonstrate the passion and determination required to not only prevent crime but to create lasting and effective change. Dr. Neilson was nominated by the Crime Prevention and Program Development Branch.

Rose Marie Stewart has dedicated over 20 years to creating opportunities and building access to Restorative Justice in New Brunswick. Her knowledge and spirit continue to inspire those around her to work together as communities to prevent crime and better intervene. Rose was nominated for the Hall of Fame Award by Julie Meyer from the Fredericton Police Force.

Are you interested in joining the Love Shouldn't Hurt campaign to end intimate partner violence in New Brunswick? Learn more here.

